

What is the Public Outreach Library (POL)?

An on-line library which contains documents, presentations, audios and videos for public outreach activities.

How can we access the POL?

Via a web browser opening sathyasai.org/poc-archive and its folders and files. Contents are also listed in the index document at the the root folder of the library.

What can we find in the POL?

- Guidelines containing orientations and best practices for organising public outreach activities such as public meetings, walk for values, interfaith events, community engagement projects, serve the planet projects and comprehensive guides to record and share all of them (media guidelines)
- Amazing resources for serve the planet and go-green projects such as presentations, articles and quotes, material for classes, videos, games, storybooks , posters, leflets, and more
- Booklets for public distribution on Sathya Sai Baba, the Sathya Sai International Organisation and on key values (Happiness, Kindness, Love, Silence, Truth, Protect the Planet, and latest just issued Mother Earth) – some of them translated into 18 languages
- 3 and 6 minutes videos to introduce the SSIO (for public use)
- A highly motivating video to introduce the "Public Outreach mission" to SSIO members, and videos on each of the public outreach programmes
- Logos of the SSIO and its global projects
- Presentations showcased in public outreach webinars and reports containing the essential of public outreach programmes and summaries of the outstanding public outreach activities held during the last years all over the world

All Sathya Sai Centres/Groups are invited to take advantage of this source of material and resources for their activities. All are encouraged to send the corresponding translations in their languages, so that we can generate and upload versions in other languages.

Thank you for your active cooperation in this important task.

Lovingly in the Service of Sai,

Alida Parkes
Chair, Public Outreach Committee
Sathya Sai International Organisation

"In this cosmic university all are students. Hence everyone should render social service to the extent of one's capacity and spread Swami's ideals among all. There is nothing selfish in Swami's message. Hence anyone can spread it selflessly".